Name_____   Peer Review ___ out of 20 for 2 reviews. Its Good Habits for Evidence__ out of 20.

Requirement	"F" Paper Criteria	"D" Paper Criteria	"C" Paper Criteria	"B" Paper Criteria	"A" Paper Criteria
Peer Review 1 (50%)	Answered with only the word "yes" or "no." Alternatively, only provided vague comments that could apply to any paper.	Repetitive responses to all questions. Did not catch obvious errors of fact or of plagiarism or "half-copy" plagiarism.	Showed some knowledge of history in providing help to the other student. A few details and comments added.	Showed good knowledge of history in providing help to the other student. Some details and comments added.	Showed extensive knowledge of history in providing help to the other student. Detailed and thorough, including with many comments added.
Peer Review 2 (50%)	Answered with only the word "yes" or "no." Alternatively, only provided vague comments that could apply to any paper.	Repetitive responses to all questions. Did not catch obvious errors of fact or of plagiarism or "half-copy" plagiarism.	Showed some knowledge of history in providing help to the other student. A few details and comments added.	Showed good knowledge of history in providing help to the other student. Some details and comments added.	Showed extensive knowledge of history in providing help to the other student. Detailed and thorough, including with many comments added.

Total

↓	↓
Grade for the Comparison: Either "D" or "F" as marked. Its Good Habits for Evidence grade: * 0 = If any marks in "D" or "F" columns *20 = If no marks in "D" or "F" columns	Grades for the 2 Peer Reviews: Either "C" or "B" or "A" as marked If you made a "C" or "B" or "A," then you also had no marks in the "D" or "F" columns. Doing both results in 20 extra credit points because you began by following the Good Habits.

1.   To receive the points written on this sheet, you must reply to this email saying you understand the form.
2.   If you do not understand the feedback or want help in developing different habits, I will be glad to help you.

_____   _____
Your signature that you have read this   Date