Color coding in Chronologies to help you spot these areas that we will be talking about in each section of time:

Pink	China
Light Red	Hawaii/Pacific (including Alaska, Philippines, Guam, Samoa, Wake Island)
Light Grey	Latin America/Caribbean
Teal	Germany (the closest color to the one on the World Map)

Background in the United States and World Imperialism

1. Before the Civil War and after it, the US had racism toward African Americans and had anti-immigrant (nativism) responses to the Irish and others.

2. Since the late 1400s, European nation-states created colonies in the Americas, the Caribbean, and the Far East—but not Africa.
3. In the late part of the 1800s, European nation (and Japan) made one last race for empire. (See the map of imperialism in 1900 in the course.) This imperialistic push included 2 late comers:
 - Germany
 - United States

Background: 1860s - Alaska – Seward’s “Folly” (but later gold and oil)

19	Date	Presidential Election	Beyond America
	1865-04	A. Johnson, President
	1867-02		Russia, Alaska as willing sale; bribes

Late 1880s and 1890s Events and People Who Have Ripple Effects

1890 US Demographics – Census Bureau declares the end of the frontier

Think what that means at least these 2 groups:

- For those not doing well and looking for a fresh start
- For manufactures and sellers of good

1890s Alfred Thayer Mahon (1840-1914) – Letting Him Speak for Himself

- Background— naval officer; lecturer on naval history and what is called “tactics”
- Author of Influence of Sea Power upon History, 1660-1783 in 1890-among other books, including one that goes to 1812
Who is the big sea power 1660-1812?
- Influential in the United States, on the US Secretaries of the Navy and particularly on Theodore Roosevelt, and on Germany
- Major arguments:
 - Big navy is quantity and in size of ships (battleships) (Why?)
 - Naval bases (Why?)
 - Colonies (Why?)
- Representative quotations:
 - “Whether they will or not, Americans must now begin to look outward. The growing production of the country demands it.”
The Interest of America in Sea Power (1897) Why?
 - “War now not only occurs more rarely . . . [but is] an occasional excess, from which recovery is easy.”
Not from my book collection but I had been looking for it and this—thus far—is the closest I can find.

Notice the date of his death. How did the years beginning in 1914 modify that view by Europe and the US?

1890s Rivalry -Yellow Journalism, Pulitzer, and Hearst – the New Journalism and New Goal

- Yellow Journalism – why the name?
- William Randolph Hearst – New York Journal
- Joseph Pulitzer – New York World - What else is Pulitzer known for?

1895-1899 Cuba (The Teller Amendment), Puerto Rico, Guam (and 2 more Pacific Island), the Ending of Hawaii, and the Surprise That Is the Philippines

Caution about this Period: What’s guerrilla warfare? This is a different kind of world:

- Spain and the reconcentration camps (bad and deadly, but not the Nazi version in the 1940s) against groups wanting Cuba to be a nation (and the British version of this)
- Later United States and its methods in the Philippines

Background: Terms on Spanish American War:

- “Smoked Yankees” – name for African Americans (not in the test, but a clue to the world)
- “splendid little war” – phrase by John Hay
- Rough Riders

² It is the 1894 income tax that goes to the Supreme Court and the court declares this tax unconstitutional—thus the later amendment to the Constitution.

³ W.E.B. Du Bois calls it the Atlanta Compromise – given American history and what events we have labeled as a Compromise, not a compliment.

⁴ John Hay also coined the phrase a “splendid little war.”
